

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
PENSACOLA DIVISION

ERIC LEE YOUNGS,
Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No.: 3:20cv5419/LAC/EMT

NORTHEAST FLORIDA STATE HOSPITAL,
Defendant.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff, a resident of the Northeast Florida State Hospital proceeding pro se, commenced this case by filing a civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (ECF No. 1). Upon review of the complaint, the court preliminarily determined that venue appeared to be improper, and the case should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida (see ECF No. 3). The court issued an order directing Youngs to show cause why this case should not be transferred to the Middle District of Florida (id.). The deadline for Youngs to respond to the show cause order has passed, and the court has received no response from Plaintiff. Therefore, the undersigned recommends transfer of this case to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b), 1404.

Venue for civil actions is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), which provides that a civil action may be brought in:

(1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located;

(2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, . . . ; or

(3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court's personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.

Id. Furthermore, 28 U.S.C. § 1404 provides: “[f]or the convenience of parties and witnesses, in the interest of justice, a district court may transfer any civil action to any other district or division where it might have been brought.” 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a). Such transfers may be made sua sponte by the district court. See Tazoe v. Airbus S.A.S., 631 F.3d 1321, 1336 (11th Cir. 2011); see also 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a) (directing a district court to dismiss or transfer an action to an appropriate venue if it determines that the action was filed in the wrong district).

Here, the acts or occurrences forming the basis of Plaintiff's Complaint occurred in Macclenny, Florida, which is located in the Middle District of Florida. Further, it appears that all Defendants reside, for purposes of venue, in the Middle District. Neither the private interests of the litigants nor the public interest in the administration of justice is even minimally advanced by venue being maintained in the Northern District of Florida. Therefore, this civil action should be transferred to the Middle District of Florida.

Accordingly, it is respectfully RECOMMENDED:

That the clerk of court transfer this case to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida and close the file.

At Pensacola, Florida, this 2nd day of June 2020.
